Join award winning author illustrator Megan Forward as she leads you in a fun hands on workshop as she shares how she started her journey into writing and illustrating, and inspires you to create your own picture book

Writing and Illustrating a Picture Book

This is a workshop for young people who are interested in writing and illustrating and would like to know how a picture book comes together, learn some new illustrating techniques, and explore ideas for writing their own picture books.

Megan is a qualified Art and English teacher as well as an award-winning illustrator and author. Her first picture book A Patch from Scratch was shortlisted for the Children's Book Council Australia (Crichton Awards) 2017 and the Speech Pathology Australia Awards 2017. All I Want for Christmas is Rain (with author Cori Brooke) was shortlisted for the Children's Book Council Australia's Young Readers Award 2017. Since then her bestselling book Jacaranda Magic (with Dannika Patterson) and Emily Green's Garden (with Penny Harrison) have been published. She is currently working on her fifth picture book to be published in 2020. Megan is based in Manly Brisbane, Queensland, Australia.
